

What she wants

Store your wet umbrella in this lightweight container and keep those drips away. Broly in a bottle by Pacing Luck, $24.90, from InQbox

Pump up the fun with this zany neck piece: Wear it with a bold-coloured tee for oomph. Nathalie Gilles pour Agnes B necklace, $375, from Agnes B

The blushing pink bottle bursts with a fresh summer scent concocted from the likes of lotus flower, guava and water lily. Ralph Lauren Romance Eau Fraiche, $119 for 100ml, from major department stores

Fashion with a conscience: This safari-inspired carrier is made of old tyres and second-hand clothes and belts. Messenger bag by Ben & Bear, $230, from Quintessential

A pair of high-tops with loads of cheery cherry prints is a youthful addition to any shoe closet. High-top sneakers, $159, from Nike

IMRAN JALAL'S PICKS

What he wants

Strap on this watch with its scratch-resistant mineral glass surface for some brawn ambition. T.U.F Limited Edition watch, $1,190, from Tough Jeansmith

Boys will go ga-ga over this croc-skin embossed leather trainers. Revan NYC trainers by Lacoste, $209, from In:Famous and Famous Footwear

Zesty notes of lemon combine with earthy sage and patchouli to make this scent perfect for the active urbanite. Lanvin L'Homme EDT, $120 for 100ml, from major department stores

Cutesy fridge magnets are a dime a dozen. Crank up the macho factor with this unique four-piece set. Fred's Screwed Up Magnets, $12.90, from NBC

Wake up to a good morning with this pair of ultra-comfy boxers that has the same greeting found on those old-school towels. Boxer shorts by GOD, $25, from Anthropology

